Establishment of Language Club (Marathi, Hindi & English)

Introduction:

To create a unique platform that celebrates linguistic diversity by integrating Marathi (regional heritage), Hindi (national link), and English (global communication). The club aims to build confident, multi-lingual individuals who can seamlessly transition between local cultural contexts and global professional environments.

Club Objectives:

- To master conversational fluency and public speaking across all three languages.
- To eradicate "language hesitation" (bhashik bheeti) through inclusive, peer-led activities.
- To improve students writing and Communication skills in all three language
